

JPS Africa is a non-profit organisation with the goal of increasing access to high-quality HIV & AIDS prevention services in South Africa. In collaboration with our partners, we empower health professionals and the communities they serve to build and maintain quality healthcare services in low-resource settings.

We are at the forefront of major public health interventions such as Medical Male Circumcision, MDR-TB management, Sexual and Reproductive Health capacitation and HIV Treatment Surveillance.

We are looking for 3 health sciences students to assist with the management of a medical male circumcision campaign for the month of September including a novel condom distribution strategy to reach older men (20-34 years).

We are looking for a student resident in the following districts:

1. Nkangala (Mpumalanga)
2. Waterberg (Limpopo)
3. Sedibeng (Gauteng)

Selection Criteria:

1. 2nd- 3rd year student in health sciences
2. Experience in engaging with communities
3. Knowledge of HIV and medical male circumcision
4. Ability to travel
5. Valid Drivers Licence
